The petitions were referred to the Dy. Commr, Mysore Dist. for disposal and that officer has submitted a report together with the records relating to the Subject.

From the Verm. papers, it is observed as follows: —

The petr deposed before the Amildar of the Yedatore Taluk to the above effect, and added that a wound on his left leg has disabled him from moving about.

The Amildar reported to the Hunsur Divisional Officer that the Statements made by the petitioner were true and as such, recommended that one Seer of rice per diem might be granted temporarily without inconvenience, from the Annachattram at Yedatore.

The Divl. Officer and the Dy. Commr concur with the Amildar's views and recommend the granting of the allowance prayed for by the petr.
